(FAS) certification from EU
GDPR Institute

Harsh Walia is a Partner in the Technology, Media & Telecom (TMT) and Data Protection Practice Groups at Khaitan & Co., New Delhi. With over two decades of experience, he advises Indian and global clients on regulatory, transactional, and commercial matters across telecom, tech, and data privacy-driven sectors.

He has led a multitude of complex mandates involving telecom licensing, satellite connectivity, OTT services, M2M communications, spectrum trading, VNOs, internet telephony, and infrastructure sharing. Harsh is also well-versed in negotiating high-value contracts for software, hardware, managed services, roaming, outsourcing, and network interconnection, advising major telecom and IT players globally.

A recognized thought leader in data protection, Harsh is a Certified Data Protection Officer (India) and holds the GDPR FAS certification from the EU GDPR Institute. He regularly advises clients on data privacy compliances, cross-border data transfers, breach responses, and implementation of privacy frameworks in line with global standards.

Harsh has been named a 'Leading Partner' (Data Protection) by Legal 500 Asia-Pacific 2025 and consistently ranked as a 'Next Generation Partner' and 'Recommended Lawyer'. His accolades include BW Legal World's 40 Under 40, ALB India's Top TMT Lawyers, India Business Law Journal's Awards, and IFLR1000's Highly Regarded Lawyer for Telecom Networks. He is also recognized as a 'Notable Practitioner' by Chambers and Partners.
